- 2.8. to provide effective advertising (provide you with news, special offers and general information about other goods, services and events which we offer, that are similar to those that you have already purchased or enquired about);
- 2.9. to create anonymized databases and reports, including but not limited to, industry benchmarking and other aggregated reports, trend/pattern reports, risk profile reports, all of which we may provide or sell to our customers or other third parties.

3. HOW WE SHARE THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND RECEIVE

3.1. We don't sell your personal information to third parties.

3.2. We may share other information with:

3.2.1. our affiliates, in other words, other companies in our group;

3.2.2. third parties, where we share anonymized data and reports (we share nonpersonally identifiable information (anonymized data) with other customers or third parties, by using the data we collected (not the personal information) to create aggregated and anonymized reports. As an example, we will collate the carbon footprint data we collect into industry benchmarking reports. We may share or sell this data and/or reports to third parties. Such data and/or reports are always anonymized and we never share personal or identifiable information about you in our reports;

3.2.3. other parties in response to legal process, laws, or when necessary to conduct or protect our legal rights;

3.2.4. other parties in connection with certain business transactions (in the event that we restructure or sell any of our businesses or assets, we may disclose your personal information to the prospective buyer of such business or assets or other transacting party);

3.2.5. companies that provide services to us (companies that provide services to us or act on our behalf may have access to information about you. These companies are limited in their ability to use information they receive in the course of providing services to us or you);

3.2.6. Google Analytics (Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google that tracks and reports website traffic. Google uses the data collected to track and monitor the use of our Platforms or Products. This data is shared with other Google services. Google may use the collected data to contextualize and personalize the ads of its own advertising network. You can opt-out of Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on. The add-on prevents the Google Analytics JavaScript (ga.js, analytics.js, and dc.js) from sharing information with Google Analytics about your activities. For more information on the privacy practices of Google, visit the Google Privacy Terms web page: <http://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>).

4. YOUR CHOICES

4.1. You have the right to ask us not to contact you for marketing purposes. You can exercise this right at any time by using any of the various "opt-out" options that we will always provide to you when we communicate with you. We won't send you marketing messages if you tell us not to but we will still need to send you service-related messages.

- 4.2. You have the right to confirm whether we hold personal information about you and the right to request a copy of your personal information. To exercise these rights please refer to our PAIA manual which can be found here
- 4.3. We want to make sure that any data we hold about you is up to date. So if you think your personal information is inaccurate, you can ask us to correct or remove it.
- 4.4. You can also update your personal information directly within your account settings section. If you are unable to change your personal information, please contact us to make the required changes.
- 4.5. You have the right to request that some of your personal information is provided to you, or to another responsible party, in a commonly used, machine-readable format.
- 4.6. You have the right to [ask/require] us to erase your personal information when the personal information is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, or when, among other things, your personal information have been unlawfully processed. In certain circumstances, you also have the right to object to processing of your personal information.

5. MONITORING OF COMMUNICATIONS

We may monitor and record our communications with you, including e-mails and phone conversations. Information which we collect may then be used for training purposes, quality assurance, to record details about the products and services you use or ask us about, and in order to meet our legal and regulatory obligations generally.

6. RETENTION OF DATA

- 6.1. We will retain your personal information only for as long as is necessary for the purposes set out in this privacy policy or to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our legal agreements and policies.
- 6.2. We may retain other data for internal analysis purposes.

7. TRANSFER OF DATA

- 7.1. We are based in and operates from South Africa. Your information, including personal information, may be transferred to and maintained on servers located outside of your country, where the data privacy laws, regulations and standards, may not be equivalent to the laws in your country of residence.
- 7.2. We might transfer your personal information to places outside of South Africa and store it there, where our suppliers might process it. If that happens, we require our suppliers to apply the same security standards as when we process your information in South Africa.
- 7.3. Your consent to this privacy policy followed by your submission of such information to us, represents your agreement to such transfer.
- 7.4. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this privacy policy.

8. SECURITY OF DATA

The security of your data is important to us. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security. However, we do employ a number of safeguards intended to mitigate the risk of unauthorized access or disclosure of your information. We will do our best to protect your personal information and we will use up to date technology that will help us to do this. We will at all times comply with our obligation under law.

9. PAYMENTS SERVICE PROVIDERS

- 9.1. We may provide paid products and/or services on our Platforms or Products. We use third-party services for payment processing.
- 9.2. We will not store or collect your payment card details. That information is provided directly to our third-party payment processors whose use of your personal information is governed by their privacy policy. These payment processors adhere to the standards set by PCI-DSS as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover. PCIDSS requirements help ensure the secure handling of payment information.
